How would you rate your knowledge of East Asia? Please check one of the following:

- Academic specialization in East Asia
- Not a specialist but knowledgeable
- General knowledge only
- Not familiar with but would like to learn about East Asia

How do you expect to make use of what you learn from this workshop in your classroom? Please check all that apply.

- To supplement my own specialization in East Asia
- To introduce East Asian content in my existing courses
- To create new courses in Asian Studies
- Others

Please attach the following items to this application cover sheet:

- A brief statement explaining how you anticipate the workshop content will enhance your professional development and be infused into your teaching.
- Current curriculum vitae.

Meals and transportation in Redlands will be provided, but each participant will be responsible for a $75 registration fee plus transportation to Redlands and lodgings. Hotel accommodations at group rates will be available for approximately $89 per night.

Application deadline is September 6, 2002. Approximately 35 full-time faculty members from American colleges and universities will be selected for participation in this program. Both scholars in Asian Studies and non-Asianists are welcome to apply. Preference will be given firstly to faculty who are not specialists in East Asian Studies and secondly to Asianists who are broadening beyond their disciplinary and/or geographical specialty. Early notification of application status is available upon request.
